

THE GOLDEN BOWL

by Henry James (1843-1916)

Published in 1904 and set in England, The Golden Bowl is a complex, intense study of marriage and adultery. The novel completes what some critics have called the “major phase” of James’ career. The Golden Bowl explores the tangle of interrelationships between a father and daughter and their respective spouses. The novel focuses deeply and almost exclusively on the consciousness of the central characters, with sometimes obsessive detail but also with powerful insight. (Wikipedia)
